Introduction: The Man Who Fought Against Darkness

Father Gabriele Amorth (1925–2016) was no ordinary priest. For over 30 years, he battled the forces of evil as the Vatican's most famous exorcist, performing thousands of deliverances and demonic expulsions. A founding member of the International Association of Exorcists, his testimonies and revelations about the occult world shocked the beliefs of millions.

But what did the demons say during exorcisms? What were their most shocking confessions? In this article, we explore the life, work, and terrifying secrets that Amorth extracted from malevolent entities.

The Life of a Spiritual Warrior

Born in Modena, Italy, in 1925, Gabriele Amorth joined the Pauline Fathers and was ordained a priest in 1954. However, his true mission began in 1986, when he was appointed the official exorcist for the Diocese of Rome, under the mentorship of the legendary Father Candido Amantini.

Amorth performed over 160,000 exorcisms in his lifetime, documenting cases of demonic possession, infestations, and curses. His books, such as An Exorcist Tells His Story and Memoirs of an Exorcist, became bestsellers, revealing a hidden world many prefer to ignore.

The Most Terrifying Phrases from Demons, According to Amorth

During his exorcisms, Father Amorth recorded the words, blasphemies, and confessions of demons. Here are some of the most shocking statements he heard:

1. "We hate the Virgin Mary because she is the purest and humiliates us."
    - Demons acknowledged the power of the Virgin and her intercession.
2. "The Pope [John Paul II] hurts us with his prayers."

    - Amorth recounted how demons feared the Holy Father and his spiritual authority.
3. “Abortion is our greatest triumph; every aborted child is a victory for us.”
    - A chilling confession revealing how evil celebrates the destruction of innocent life.
4. “Hell is full of priests and bishops.”
    - According to Amorth, demons claimed many religious figures fell into damnation due to hypocrisy and sin.
5. “The Mass is our torment; every Eucharist burns us.”
    - Demons hated the Holy Mass and the real presence of Christ in the Host.
6. “Drugs, the occult, and disordered sex are our gateways to possessing people.”
    - They admitted these sins opened easy paths to demonic possession.
7. “No matter how many times you cast us out, we will always return.”
    - A threat reflecting evil’s persistence in spiritual life.

Father Amorth’s Most Difficult Battles

Amorth didn’t just fight common demons but also high-ranking entities like Lucifer, Belial, and Leviathan. Some of his most famous cases included:

- An Italian woman who spoke 15 unknown languages (demonic glossolalia).
- A possessed man who levitated during exorcisms.
- An infestation in a convent where nuns suffered physical attacks from invisible forces.

The exorcist claimed that 90% of possessions began through contact with the occult (Ouija boards, Satanism, witchcraft).

Father Amorth’s Legacy: A Warning to the World

Gabriele Amorth died in 2016, but his teachings remain relevant. His revelations expose:

 The danger of esotericism and New Age practices.
 The importance of sacraments (Confession, Eucharist) as spiritual weapons.
 The urgent need for more exorcists in the Church.

Today, his work continues with exorcists like Father Carlos Martín and Father José Antonio Fortea, who carry on his mission.

Conclusion: Do You Believe in the Devil?

Father Amorth often said:

> "Satan's greatest triumph is convincing the world he doesn't exist."

His life was a constant battle against evil, but also a message of hope: God always wins.
